Parallax Photographic Coop

Parallax Photographic is designed to be a fair and ethical photographic retailer. We have a transparent and inclusive relationship with our customers, suppliers, and partners. It is our intention to support both the community, whose love and passion for photography we share and the industry which depends on the continued use of traditional photographic technologies.

Photofusion

Photofusion provides a diverse range of photographic services that continually respond to the revolution and evolution of lens-based imagery. Alongside its professional development and training programmes, Photofusion delivers a range of crucial outreach engagement projects, working with socially and culturally marginalised young people.
